I wanted to bring to your attention another new book proclaiming God's plan, as revealed in Scripture, to ultimately save all mankind! "Hope Beyond Hell" by Gerry Beauchemin is published by Malista Press in Olmito, Texas and is available thru Gerry's web site at www.HopeBeyondHell.net

Gerry has been involved in missions since 1988; in Mexico, the Philippines, and Senegal, West Africa. He currently conducts dental training for missions.

Gerry's book is filled with Scriptural references and quotations from church history. He displays the fallacy of the traditional church teachings concerning an eternal torment.

Allow me to share one brief portion from Gerry's book, as he displays that even those within the traditional church do not really believe the message being proclaimed from the pulpits relative to eternal torment for the unbeliever.

"Last Sunday, Rev. Smith preached a powerful message on the second coming of Christ, and the last judgment. He boldly laid the grim destiny of mankind before his congregation. After his sermon and the closing prayer, he announced: 'We're all meeting at Kingdom Park this afternoon at 1 p.m. for our Annual Fellowship Banquet. Men, don't forget your golf clubs, and the pastries, Ladies!' The reality that our lives can go on so casually after such a heart wrenching sermon proves one of three possibilities:

1. We are totally oblivious to the horror of everlasting punishment.
2. If we are not oblivious, then in our heart of hearts, we really do not believe it.
3. Or, (and please brace yourself and forgive me for saying so), we must be the most despicable, pathetic, detestable, wretched, and loathsome creatures in the universe worthy of the severest punishment."

Yes, Gerry, there is Hope Beyond Hell. And not just hope as the world defines hope. We have the full assurance of Scripture that God has no intention of tormenting forever a single person. He is about the business of bringing all into subjection to Him, reconciling all until Himself, that one day He will be All in all. And not a single lamb will be lost.

Thank you, Gerry, for being yet another voice among Believers in this present day to proclaim God's correct and full evangel. He is indeed the Saviour of all!
